

MEDIA RELEASE

14 July 2021

Launch of Head4Work – workplace mental health tool

The Tasmanian Chamber of Commerce & Industry (TCCI) is excited to announce the upcoming launch of a new Tasmanian-based workplace mental health tool called Head4Work.

“Mental health is front and centre in public conversations and policy making in Australia,” TCCI CEO Michael Bailey said. “Funded by the WorkCover Tasmania Board, Head4Work is a first-of-its-kind diagnostic tool aimed at assisting Tasmanian businesses to create safe and mentally healthy workplaces.”

“Designed to be used by work teams, Head4Work is a free tool designed to provide business owners and managers with important data to identify and address workplace mental health risks.”

“The tool can be accessed from any device including a mobile phone, making it easy to adopt in any workplace.”

Official launch event:

When: Thursday 15 July 2021, 10.30am speeches kick off

Where: Bank of Us, Hobart Branch office – 106 Collins Street, Hobart

 This will be a closed event for media and stakeholders only.

Interviews available on the day with:

- Michael Bailey, CEO of TCCI
- Paul Ranson, CEO of Bank of Us
- Julieann Buchanan, WorkCover Tasmania Board Member

Tasmanian Chamber of Commerce and Industry

Hobart | Launceston | Devonport

1300 559 122 www.tcci.com.au

More about Head4Work here.

Contact: TCCI Chief Executive Officer, Michael Bailey, mobile 0437 322 338